AN ACT

To repeal section 290.110, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof one new section relating to payment due discharged employees.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 290.110, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 290.110, to read as follows:

290.110. Whenever any person, firm or corporation doing business in this state shall discharge, with or without cause, or refuse to further employ any servant or employee thereof, the unpaid wages of the servant or employee then earned at the contract rate, without abatement or deduction, shall be and become due and payable Ion the day of the discharge or refusal to longer employ and the servant or employee may request in writing of his foreman or the keeper of his time to have the money due him, or a valid check therefor, sent to any station or office where a regular agent is kept; and if the money or a valid check therefor, does not reach the station or office within seven days from the date it is so requested, in the same manner and in accordance with the same time schedule as would have been the case had the discharge 10 or refusal to further employ the servant or employee not occurred. If the unpaid wages of the servant or employee so discharged or refused further employment are not paid in 11 12 accordance with the provisions of this section, then as a penalty for such nonpayment the 13 wages of the servant or employee shall continue from the date of the discharge or refusal to 14 further employ, at the same rate until paid; provided, such wages shall not continue more than 15 sixty days. This section shall not apply in the case of an employee whose remuneration for work is based primarily on commissions and whose duties include collection of accounts, care of a
